As one of Nashville’s top-selling real estate agents with 450 home sales last year, I treat my clients like family. And with over 13 years of experience in the Nashville real estate market, I am proud to lead a team that has been named the “Top Selling Team” three years in a row by Greater Nashville REALTORS®.

What’s our secret? We are obsessively dedicated to providing our clients with the best customer service. We never come to our clients with a problem; I’ve trained my team to only offer solutions. In turn, our clients are our biggest supporters, referring business to our team.

Nationally ranked by The Wall Street Journal as a top-selling team, we work with buyers, sellers, investors, and run a relocation division. My years as a marketing and advertising executive pay off in my skill in marketing a property. We have a strategic marketing plan and stage every home because I believe you only have one chance to make a first impression. Let our team, be your team.

Nobody knows Nashville like a native. Born and raised in Music City, I have a deep-rooted passion for helping people buy a lifestyle, not just a home. I've enjoyed being a longtime urban dweller having lived in The Gulch, Downtown, Germantown, 12 South, and Sylvan Summit. I love the historical charm of all these neighborhoods and close proximity to all things Nashville and never pass up the chance to hit the local coffee shops or try out a new restaurant. Recognized in the top 1% of agents in all of Middle Tennessee, I am humbled and inspired by my clients every day and welcome new opportunities to serve.

I don't just live, work, and play in Brentwood, I thrive here! In fact, I spend over 80% of my professional time working in Williamson County. But to me, real estate is more than numbers. It's about helping people. I love being a resource to my clients and keeping active in the community. I coach local sports teams, I founded and run an area non-profit for families with young children, and I send my kids to the local schools. I'm invested in Brentwood and Williamson County and have a network of past clients and ambassadors to help my team achieve incredible results for our clients.

Our team's mission is to help clients grow roots in the communities we know and love. We work tirelessly to serve your needs while encouraging long-term stability for your future. For us, real estate is a vehicle to help strengthen our communities and empower our clients. We are driven by a core belief in giving back to the place that builds and shapes us every day. After each transaction, we make a charitable donation in our clients' name to the organization of their choice. This is simply an extension of our client commitment and promise to serve with integrity every step of the way.

As your go-to Green Hills experts, we bring energy and excitement to every detail of your transaction. We specialize in selling luxury new construction homes by the best builders in town, as well as representing buyers and sellers of exceptional homes in and around the Green Hills area. From elegant estates in the most affluent neighborhoods, to flawless representation of exquisite new development, we are fortunate to serve this special community.

I have called Music City home for the last 15 years. Working in one of Nashville's most prosperous industries enables me to educate my clients on the city's best local hot spots for music, food, and entertainment. My primary goal with buyers, sellers, and investors is to keep them interested in expanding their portfolio by owning property in the urban core. I'm quick to learn about new commercial and residential establishments around town and eager to share my insights with my loyal clientele.

A Nashville native, I have an eye for inspired living spaces and a passion for preserving our city’s authenticity. Now residing in Wedgewood Houston, this exciting neighborhood’s market value is just beginning to benefit our locals, transplants, and investors. When not selling in Nashville’s urban core, you can find me in Cheatham County, escaping the hustle with my clients. I live to buy and sell in these areas known for their cabin life, land, and country living. From first homes to investment opportunities, I provide personalized, thorough advisory to help you to achieve your goals.

My competence is your confidence! As a Harvard-educated urban planner, relocation specialist, and multi-year GNR award winner, I make it my business to earn and keep my clients’ trust throughout the process of buying or selling their homes. I am an Accredited Buyer Representative (ABR) and Seller Representative Specialist (SRS), so I handle every need. I am a Nashville native and Germantown resident, and I specialize in Nashville’s urban neighborhoods, Green Hills, and Williamson County. Not one for self-marketing (this advertisement notwithstanding), I build my business, instead, each time one impressed client tells a friend or family member about my thoroughness, strategic approach, and good humor. From consultation to closing, I keep you confident.

As an East Side guy and the go-to local resource, I consistently rank as the #1 agent in East Nashville, selling over 60 homes a year in record time and for top dollar. I focus my attention on Nashville’s urban core, where I live with my wife, raise my kids, and where meaningful client relationships are formed and last for years. Named “The Local Expert” by several publications, clients turn to me for help navigating the competitive Nashville market and for my ability to find properties off-market. Routinely selling over $30 million a year, I work with everyone from first-time home buyers to seasoned real estate investors, and take pride in the fact that my business partnerships often end with lifelong friendships.
